

Excellence in Archaeology and Historic Preservation Award

Nomination Guidelines

The Excellence in Archaeology and Historic Preservation Award recognizes the best archaeology or historic preservation project at the local or state level.

The following criteria will be used to select the winner of this award:

- Level of effort needed to preserve the resource
- Historic significance of the resource
- Application of the Secretary of the Interior's Standards and Guidelines for Archaeology and Historic Preservation
- Local impact of the project and benefit to the community
- Potential to replicate the project in another community
- Additional steps taken to share this history with the public
- Application of state or federal preservation laws

One Excellence in Archaeology and Historic Preservation Award and one Certificate of Merit may be given annually. Should a worthy nomination not be received, the award may not be given.

State Historical Society of Iowa employees and Board of Trustees members are not eligible to receive the award.

To nominate an individual, group or organization, complete the nomination form on the next page and send to:
