

The Revolutionary War monument in Iowa is on the State Capitol grounds in Des Moines.

Revolutionary Soldier	Buried
Ayers, Ebenezer	Lee County
Bailey, Luther	Des Moines County
Bean, Daniel	Des Moines County
Bell, Benjamin	Webster County
Blair, William	Des Moines County
Bonnett, Lewis	Van Buren County
Brees, Timothy	Lee County
Brown, Nathan	Linn County
Brown, Timothy	Washington County
Burrell, Francis	Decatur County
Clark, Abran	Lee County
Crockett, William	Monroe County.
Dow, Daniel	Page County
Edwards, Eli	Jackson County
Elmore, Matron	Lee County
Fellows, Nathaniel	Johnson County
Gearhart, Peter	Des Moines County
Glover, Amos	Lee County
Harry, Charles	Cedar County
Hatch, Jeremiah	Pottawattamie County
Holms/Holmes, Peter	Clayton County
Lepper, John	Clinton County
Lewis, Sanuel	Washington County
Linn, Martin	Cedar County

Mason, Isaac	Davis County
McDonald, John	Des Moines County
Mead, Cato	Lee County
Morgan, John	Des Moines County
Osborn, John	Linn County
Patterson, Joseph	Lee County
Perkins, George	Lee County
Potter, William	Jackson County
Price, Sampson	Louisa County
Rhodes, Thomas	Van Buren County
Rogers, Achilles	Keokuk County
Ross, William	Des Moines County
Scarrem, Richard	Mahaska County
Shepherd, Charles	Henry County
Sinkey, William	Jackson County
Van Hook, Lawrence	Jackson County
Ware, Frederick	Des Moines County
Wiley, Jacob	Jefferson County
Winton, Nathan	Davis County
Woody, Jonathan R.	Wapello County