

The Great Exhibition of 1860 Political Cartoon

Horace Greeley (far left): Now caper about on your rail Abraham, while I play the “Slieve gammon polka.” – “All the way from Oregon” Mrs. Curney’s “Love song” and other choice airs from my collection.

Abraham Lincoln (second from the left): Mum.

William H. Seward holding a black infant (center): It’s no use, trying to keep me and the “Irrepressible” infant in the background; for we are really the head and front of this party, ---

Henry J. Raymond (second from the right): I’ll stick fast to you General, for the present; because I have my own little axe to grind.

James Watson Webb (far right): Please Gentlemen! Help a Family in reduced circumstances, we are very hard up, and will even take three cents if we can’t get more, just to keep the little Nigger alive.