

Correspondence between Harry S. Truman and Herbert Hoover about Postwar Efforts to Prevent Famine, May 24, 1945

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

May 24 45

My dear Mr. President: -

If you should be in Washington, I would be most happy to talk over the European food situation with you. Also it would be a pleasure to me to become acquainted with you.

Most Sincerely

Harry Truman

Hon. Herbert Hoover,
New York City.

Dear Mr. President

I have your most kind invitation of the 24th. I will be glad to come to Washington anytime to meet your convenience and I am asking one of your secretaries to fix an hour.

Yours sincerely,

(s) Herbert Hoover
