

"Whig Harmony," 1848

Horace Greeley, who is led by Henry Clay:

"It's of no use to talk to me, for Mr. Clay says he would rather be right than to be President, and that is the policy I am adopting now."

Uncle Sam, who is led by Zachary Taylor:

"Do slack up a little there, Horace, till we get over a chock that someone has put before the wheel."

In the cart: tariff, bank, internal improvements