

“THE PRISONER'S FRIEND.”—This interesting weekly, which is the only paper that is wholly devoted to the abolition of the gallows, and to prison reform, will hereafter be issued monthly, each number containing 48 pages of reading matter and one engraving. This change will furnish the subscribers with about the same amount and as great a variety of matter, in a form more suitable for binding. We do not know but the friends of prison reform in the West patronize this paper; if they do not, they lose an interesting and valuable journal. It is published in Boston, and edited by Charles Spear. The price will be the same as heretofore, $2 per annum.
