

"Great Central Route, and U.S. Mail Line" Broadside, 1856

Great Central Route, and U.S. Mail Line

The Shortest, Quickest, and in all respects the most reliable Route to Chicago,
And all Cities and Towns in Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Missouri, Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Kansas,

And to all points on the Mississippi and Missouri Rivers,
Via Great Western Railway, or, M.C. R. R. North Shore Steamers, Western World, Plymouth Rock, and Mississippi, Michigan Central R.R.,

Illinois Central Rail-Road,
Chicago, Burlington & Quincy R.R.,
Galena & Chicago Union Rail Road,
Chicago, Fulton & Iowa R.R. Line,
New Albany & Salem Rail-Road,

And all other Rail-Road and Steamboat Lines to the West and Southwest.

Passenger allowed to stay over at any point on the Route. No charge for handling Baggage.
Less change of Cars and Baggage, and more Air-Line Rail-Road, than on any other Route.

For Through Tickets, Freight Contracts, and Bills of Lading, and for information in respect to prices and routes to the Great West,

Apply at the Office of the above Companies, at 173 Broadway,

Corner of Courtlandt Street
Darius Clark,
Passenger and Freight Agent

See Other Side

Great Central Route

(Left) Fulton, Rock Island, Burlington, Quincy, St. Louis, Cairo, and New Orleans.

(Right) Via Suspension Bridge or Buffalo to Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukee, Galena, Dubuque, St. Paul,
Office, 173 Broadway, N.Y., Corner of Courtlandt Street